It also encourages us to reflect on the effort that goes into not just cooking the meal but growing and harvesting the ingredients. Here are 10 graces to say before meals, drawing on cultures from around the world.Humanist BenedictionThis one is about valuing those around us, and the meal we're about to eat. It has no religious overtones; it's direct and to the point. "For this meal and those who made it, / And for those with whom we share it, / We are thankful."CC BY-SA 2.0/gamerscoreblog/Flickr Adapted Native American ThanksgivingThis might be a good one to say before meals for thanksgiving dinner. "We give thanks for the living beings, the animals and plants, that gave themselves for this meal. And we give thanks for those who eat it with us."CC BY-SA 2.0/edbrambley/Flickr Christian PrayerThere are many Christian prayers to say before meals. Here's a short one: "Blessed is the Earth for providing this food, / Blessed is the Sun for nurturing its growth, / Blessed is the Wind for carrying the seeds, / And blessed is the Rain for watering them."CC BY 2.0/stockcatalog/Flickr Secular PrayerA secular prayer can follow much the same template, just without the religious feel. Dropping the religious feel can make for a more inclusive grace, allowing each person to assign their own personal meaning to the prayer. Here's one: "Sun above and Earth below, / Our loving thanks to you we show."CC BY 2.0/Kevin M. Gill/Flickr Thich Nhat Hanh BlessingVietnamese Buddhist teacher Thich Nhat Hanh is considered a master in the Zen tradition. Here is one of his simple pre-dinner blessings: "In this plate of food I see the entire universe supporting my existence."CC BY-SA 2.0/bodhi47/Flickr Sanskrit BlessingThis Sanskrit blessing recognizes the Hindu trinity, or Trimurti, of Brahma (creative energy), Vishnu (preservative energy) and Shiva (destructive energy). "The food is Brahma, its essence is Vishnu, and the eater is Shiva."CC BY-SA 2.0/sAnt1/Flickr Buddhist GathaBuddhism emphasizes compassion for all living things, and this verse, or gatha, is an expression of that. "For this food we extend gratitude to all beings who brought it to our table. And we vow to pass on our own gift to those in need."CC BY-SA 2.0/celine nadeau/Flickr Mother Nature PrayerHere's one for the hippies. "Beloved Mother Nature, benefactress of all, you are here on our table as food. Give us the strength and wisdom to help us share it with all of our brothers and sisters."CC BY-SA 2.0/lastoffagiusta2013/Flickr Funny PrayerSaying grace doesn't have to be a serious affair. Sometimes it can just be for a laugh, like this one: "Blessings on the blossom, / Blessings on the fruit, / Blessings on the beans as well / For helping us to toot."CC BY-SA 2.0/marcelo trassel/Flickr Moderation ProverbsSome proverbs are so powerfully simple yet so full of wisdom that they endure the test of time. Often, nobody really knows where they come from. Here's a good example: "Enough is a feast." In other words, sufficient food is plenty.CC BY 2.0/611catbirds, too/Flickr MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET alternate language Facebook Twitter LinkedIn See details songs/76593 25 songs that every parishioner knows by heart Previous Next At the 'Spirit & Grace Style' Boutique, I am all about style & women's fashion accessories, be that bags, replacement bag straps, belts, scarves, jewellery & gifts, Curating fabulous things is at the heart of what I do, and it is my mission to make them available to equally fabulous people! HomeCatholic SongSpirit And Grace Lyrics - Ricky Manalo Verse 1 Spirit and grace, here in this meal. You are the wind that breathes through the field. Gather the wheat and form us in Christ. Come, be our source and breath of life. Refrain: In this bread, blessed, broken and shared, Christ is our life, whose presence we bear. Come, O spirit, make your grace revealed in this holy meal. Verse 2 Spirit and grace, here in this meal. You are the life that flows through the vine. Gather this drink and form us in Christ. Come, be our source and blood of life. Refrain: In this bread, blessed, broken and shared, Christ is our life, whose presence we bear. Come, O spirit, make your grace revealed in this holy meal. Verse 3 Spirit and grace, here in this place. You are the light that shines in this space. Gather your people and form us in Christ. Come, be the heartbeat of our lives. Refrain: In this bread, blessed, broken and shared, Christ is our life, whose presence we bear. Come, O spirit, make your grace revealed in this holy meal. Verse 4 Spirit of God, sending us forth, We spread your wisdom throughout all the earth Gather the nations and form us in Christ. Come, be the presence in our lives. Refrain: In this bread, blessed, broken and shared, Christ is our life, whose presence we bear. Come, O spirit, make your grace revealed in this holy meal. Music Video | Courtesy: Youtube.com
